ODELL FEARLESSLY DEFIES ROOSEVELT

Threatens Renewal of Stalwart-Halfbreed War.

WARNED TO KEEP HANDS OFF

Battle Is on for the Control of Next New York State Republican Convention.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 .- "Remembe that for twelve years after President Garfield and President Arthur interfered in Republican quarrels in New York State the State went Democratic, and take warning from their example.

This is the response of the Odell men to the conference between President sevelt and Governor Higgins in Washington regarding the Republican situation in this State. They made it clear that the situation has not been so critical for the Republican party since the Stalwart-Halfbreed war was precipitated by Presidential interfer-They did not hesitate to threaten reprisals unless the President and the governor kept their hands out of the Republican factional quarrels for the ntrol of the New York county com-

Inimical to Odell.

Mr. Odell accepted the conference be-tween Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Higgins as a move inimical to him. He did not hesitate to discuss it, and he was both defiant and sarcastic in what he said. With the President, Secretary Root both the Senators from New York, and possibly Governor Higgins arrayed against him, he gave no sign of readiness to abandon the fight, but assured his friends that he was confident of winning by a large majority when the committee meets to choose its president next month.

Senator Platt declined to make any comment on the news from Washington, contenting himself by saying that the situation was unchanged.

Two Conventions at Stake.

With the probable control of the next Republican State convention and the next Republican national convention at stake, the leaders in the contest redoubled their efforts yesterday to lay the foundation of victory. The strategic moves of the two factions included all the devices of practical and resourceful political management. It was made evident that the nominal "leaders" of the several districts will not be permitted to decide the contest, but that the de-cision must rest with the individual choice of the 714 delegates who were elected at the primaries to the county

"I have no comment to make on the news from Washington," Senator Platt said at the Hotel Gotham.

Mr. Odell spent the day in the Republican State headquarters, in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, conferring with his aides.

Odell Advises President.

"I have read the news from Washington of the conference between the President and Governor Higgins," he said, "and about the solicitude of the President regarding the Republican situation in this State. My comment is that if the President does not think that if the President does not think Mr. Halpin has made a competent president of the county committee he should send for Mr. Halpin and ask him to retire."

Mr. Odell paused for a moment and then continued with apparent sarcasm: "Everybody has great confidence in the President's insight into New York politics and his knowledge of conditions here. He must understand the situation thoroughly. However, I do not know just what the President desires. I have not been invited to go to Washington to consult with him. Senator Platt has said the President desires the election General Clayton has made his home in Washington to Consult with him. to consult with him. Senator Platt has said the President desires the election of J. Van Vechten Olcott to the presidency of the county committee. Governor Higgins says the President is for no particular candidate. I cannot tell, therefore, what the President wants."

"Is it true that Governor Higgins is with Senator Platt?" was asked.

"It is his privilege to take sides as he pleases," Mr. Odell replied. "I have not discussed the matter with him."

When Mr. Ivins was asked whether he intended to enter the field, he said: Ivins Wants to Keep Out.

"I have not been asked to be a candidate. I have not asked to be a candidate, and I want to keep out of it. There is no foundation for the report."
Herbert Parsons, leader of the Twenty-fifth Assembly district, has declined to be made an independent candidate for Mr. Halpin's place.

DAGGER, NOT BULLET, MAY HAVE SLAIN BOY

LEWISTOWN, Pa., Nov. 22,-A surprise awaited the authorities in the Bush murder at the coroner's inquest when Dr. Smith, of Burnham, testified that all his probing failed to locate the that all his probing failed to locate the bullet, although he went the full extent of the wound. In his opinion Bush came to his death from a stilletto thrust.

Witnesses testify to a shot being fired during the struggle. Flore Glacinto, who supposedly admitted shooting Bush, was misinterpreted. Glacinto admitted firing a shot but not at young Bush. He says he only fired to scare the boy.

New Order of Things Inaugurated to Save "Hello" Calls.

As a general rule there are always two sides to the meaning of every or-

This is exceptionally well illustrated by the peculiar conditions "technicalresulting from the recent enforcement of the "old gag" to cut down the "social" calls by "long distance" in the various executive branches of the Government. In "keeping in step" with the new up in "Uncle Sam's work shops" is the old, worn-out, oft repeated requests for a chat with "lovie" over the phone, and incidentally at "your Uncle's" expense. Now these calls cost the Governmen on an average about two and a half cents per call. That's by contract, of course. Now the way things are worked "Samuel" is on his high horse. No more calls is his mandate. Ordinarily this would mean that there would be no answer by "lovie" at the other end of the line. "Uncle S." has his hands full all the time, consequently he did not, at least it looks that way, figure this thing out to the satisfaction of all contained.

thing out to the satisfaction of all concerned.

There was a third party to be condiffered. This third party was the intermediary—the telephone company. Our "Sammy" never questioned them as to how they would appreciate a reduction in their dividends. He just went ahead and did things his own way, "No one could use his phones except on business" was his order, and his orders are never refuted. "If any one wants to use this phone, socially, they have one half hour at noon for that, but the business must be transacted over public phones," he added to his order.

This arrangement didn't suit the "transmitter" a little bit. That half hour during midday is their busy time. They were already having about as many calls as they could conveniently handle. The results of the new order of things would flood them and the "hello" girl would be driven daft. They pondered over the question for days. Finally it was decided to put in "public phones" in the departments. To do this the permission of the officer of Public or the convenience of Government employes have been installed in all the departments. To do this the permission of the officer of Public will save about $10,000 a year, though.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 22.—In his bachelor apartments at the Colonial, 1005 North Charles street, the walls adorned with mounted ducks dear to the hunter's heart, a great bison's head in the center of the wall pieces, Ernest Gittings consented to talk of his gunning trip with former President Cleveland, Dr. Paul Van Dyck, of Princeton, and Joseph Calinger at Back Bay, Va.

"The gunning was not much," said Mr. Gittings. "Of the two days' shooting, Thursday and Friday, there were in the fill of the properties of a young appetite, and it as quick to drop a sandwich and pick up his No. 10 gun at the sound of wings overhead as he ever was.
